Article I. Name

The name of this organization is the Child and Adult Care Food Program National Professional Association (CACFP NPA), which will be referred to as the Association.

Article II. Organization

The Association shall be a nonprofit organization.

The Association's annual operating year shall be January 1 through December 31.

Article III. Purpose

A. To promote:

- ❖ high standards of nutrition for infants, children and adults in day care,
- ❖ training of child and adult day care staff on nutrition and food service management,
- ❖ nutrition practices that improve and enhance the impact of the foods provided,
- ❖ good management practices to assist CACFP program directors and professionals at the state and local levels to successfully administer the Program.
- ❖ greater collaboration with partners to support the mission of the Association.

B. To provide a national network through which selected ideas, materials, and procedures can be communicated to persons working in the CACFP community.

C. To express the views of members regarding program policies, regulations and legislation.

D. To increase opportunities for professional development for staff working in CACFP.

E. To act as an educational resource concerning the nutrition and food service needs of participating child and adult day care agencies and their enrolled participants.

Article IV. Membership

A. Classes of Membership - Membership in the Association shall consist of the following classes:

1. Individual membership - Open to any person who is presently or was previously employed by a State or territorial government agency administering the Child and Adult Care Food Program. The Board of Directors may confer honorary membership to individuals who significantly contribute to furthering the Association's goals.
2. Institutional membership - Open to state agencies whose staff meets the criteria for individual membership. Each agency shall identify, by name, all members to be included in the institutional membership. In the event of staff turnover, memberships may be transferred during the year upon notification to the Secretary.

B. Rights and Privileges of Members

1. Notwithstanding the right of each state agency to have an unlimited number of individual members, each state agency shall be allowed no more than 10 votes on any matter coming before the membership for a vote. Any state agency represented by more than 10 members, shall notify the Secretary which 10 members have voting rights. Other than the right to vote, non-voting members shall have all the rights and privileges afforded to voting members.
2. All individual members and each member of an institutional membership, whose dues are currently paid, may attend the national conference of the Association, including the business meeting, at the member rate.
3. All individual members and each member of an institutional membership, whose dues are currently paid, shall be eligible to serve on committees of the Association.
4. All individual members and each member of an institutional membership whose dues are currently paid and who meet the requirements in Article VII of these Bylaws, shall be eligible to serve as an elected official of the Association.
5. All members may receive information and publications prepared by or for the Association.
6. All members shall have access to the member section of the Website.
7. Communication between the Board of Directors and the members may be in the form of mail, e-mail, website posting, virtual, or in person. Votes may be conducted by mail, e-mail or in person; members will be notified of issues that require a vote at least 30 days prior to the ballot deadline. The result of the voting is effective immediately or otherwise proposed.

Article V. Membership Dues

- A. Dues for membership in the Association shall be for a biennial period beginning October 1 of each odd numbered, year through September 30 of the following odd numbered, year. Annual dues will only be assessed for members joining for the first time after October 1 of an even numbered year.
- B. Membership dues will be recommended by the Board of Directors and approved by a majority vote of voting members. The four classes of membership will each pay a different rate.

- C. Members shall be considered inactive if they fail to pay their dues by December 1. Reinstatement of privileges will be made upon full payment of the current dues owed. Dues may not be prorated.
- D. Attendance at the national conference at the member rate is dependent upon payment of the current dues owed.

Article VI. Government

- A. The legislative governing body of the Association shall include all individual and institutional members subject to any limitations contained in these Bylaws.
- B. The administrative body of the Association shall be the Board of Directors, whose members shall receive no salaries for their services. The Board of Directors shall include 5 officers (President, President-elect, Secretary, Treasurer, and Immediate Past President) and the 7 Regional Representatives.
- C. The Board of Directors shall meet in person, by telephone conference call or virtual meeting, 10 to 12 times per year. More than one-half of its members must be present for a quorum, which is required for taking official action on behalf of the Association. The Board of Directors shall meet in person at the national conference, or virtually if a virtual conference is held, and in alternate years at a strategic planning session. Members of the Board of Directors are not eligible to have alternate representation at meetings.
- D. An Executive Committee may meet at the discretion of the President to respond to issues requiring immediate attention, when the Board of Directors cannot be convened. This Executive Committee includes the President, President-elect, Secretary, Treasurer, Immediate Past President and one regional Representative selected by the seven Regional Representatives. The Executive Committee shall have all of the powers and authority of the Board in the intervals between meetings of the Board, as well as authority to delegate responsibilities to the Regional Representatives. Two thirds of the Executive Committee members, four, must be present for a quorum. The five officers are not eligible to have alternate representation at meetings of the Executive Committee or the Board of Directors. If the Regional Representative to the Executive Committee is unable to attend a meeting, another Regional Representative may be appointed by the President to attend and have all the authority of the Executive Committee member.

Article VII. Officers

A. Election of Officers

By an annual ballot held in July, the Association shall elect officers and Regional Representatives. In case of a tie for any office, selection shall be by coin toss by the Secretary. When there are no candidates running for a position on the ballot, the member with the most write-in votes is selected. No member may hold more than one elected office at a time.
